Author Declaration

By signing this agreement, the author(s) certify that the submitted manuscript is an original scholarly work prepared for publication in TIE: Trends in Entrepreneurship.

The author(s) further declare that:

- The manuscript has not been published previously in any language or format.
 - The manuscript is not simultaneously under review by another journal or publisher.
 - Every listed author has made a significant academic contribution and has approved the submitted version.
 - All necessary permissions have been obtained for any copyrighted material included in the manuscript.
 - The work does not violate the intellectual property rights or legal rights of any individual or organization.
 - Any conflicts of interest, funding sources, or ethical approvals relevant to the research have been appropriately disclosed.

Copyright Assignment

Upon acceptance and publication of the manuscript, the author(s) assign the copyright of the published work to the Federation for Integrated Arts & Management Studies, publisher of TIE: Trends in Entrepreneurship.

This assignment grants the publisher the right to:

- Publish, reproduce, and distribute the article in print and electronic formats.

- Archive and preserve the article in databases, repositories, indexing platforms, and digital libraries.
- License, communicate, and disseminate the published work through current and future publishing technologies.
- Produce translations, reprints, or other authorized versions of the published article.

This agreement shall become effective only after the manuscript has been formally accepted for publication. If the manuscript is rejected or withdrawn before acceptance, this agreement shall have no legal effect.

Rights Retained by the Author(s)

The author(s) retain the right to:

- Use the published work for teaching, classroom instruction, workshops, and conference presentations.
 - Include the work in theses, dissertations, or institutional academic compilations.
 - Reuse figures, tables, or excerpts in future scholarly publications with appropriate acknowledgment.
 - Deposit the accepted manuscript in institutional or disciplinary repositories in accordance with the journal's archiving policy.
 - Share the published work responsibly while providing proper citation to TIE: Trends in Entrepreneurship.

Research Ethics Statement

The author(s) confirm that the research has been conducted in accordance with accepted academic and ethical standards. Where applicable, approval from the appropriate ethics committee or institutional review board has been obtained, and informed consent has been secured from participants.

Publisher's Liability

The opinions, interpretations, and conclusions expressed in the manuscript are solely those of the author(s). The publisher assumes no responsibility for errors, omissions, legal claims, or disputes arising from the content of the published work.

Agreement

By signing below, the author(s) acknowledge that they have read, understood, and agreed to the terms of this Copyright Assignment and Author Declaration.
